GUIDELINES FOR APPLYING FOR LOCAL SCHOLARSHIPS AND BURSARIES

- ❖ Know the difference between a scholarship and bursary.
- ❖ Ensure you know about the donor of the scholarship or bursary for which you are applying.
- ❖ Make sure you meet ALL the criteria specified for the scholarship or bursary.
- ❖ Be sure to put the name and number of the scholarship or bursary you are applying for on each application for External numbers 48-103.
- ❖ Internal numbers 1-47 require ONLY 1 application, but you must specify all the numbers you are applying for.
- ❖ Remember to attach EVERYTHING requested to your letter. Include a letter of reference only if asked to do so and staple your application package together. DO NOT attach a letter of reference if it is NOT requested.
- ❖ Attach a copy of your most recent transcript. (NWSS students: available at the Pearson Counselling Office; Sigma and POWER: available at the Sigma and POWER offices).
- ❖ Make sure any school or community involvement described is authentic and can be substantiated as this may be checked.
- ❖ If the scholarship or bursary requires an interview, you will be contacted only if you have been short-listed for the scholarship or bursary.
- ❖ Please DO NOT put your letters of application in an envelope and DO NOT fold them.
- ❖ INCOMPLETE OR LATE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THE SCHOOL WILL NOT PROVIDE COPIES FOR YOU. A PHOTOCOPIER IS AVAILABLE IN THE LIBRARY FOR 10 CENTS PER COPY. YOU MUST SEE THE LIBRARIAN.

LOCAL AWARDS, BURSARIES AND SCHOLARSHIPS

The community of New Westminster generously supports its Grade 12 students seeking financial support for post-secondary education through Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards.

ELIGIBILITY:

Please read carefully the requirements listed in the award descriptions. International students are eligible for a limited number of awards, these awards are clearly specified.

APPLICATION:

1. A typed letter about yourself that includes the following information:

- Your student number, name and phone number typed in the top right corner;
- The number and name of the bursary or scholarship (at the top right corner of the letter);
- Your service to the school and the community (provide approximate number of hours);
- Your post-secondary goals;
- Your talents and hobbies;
- Areas of strength in your studies;
- Description of financial need;
- Addresses and contact number of two people prepared to give you a verbal reference. Letters of recommendation are not required unless specifically requested.
- Scholarship or Bursary criteria requested for particular awards in which you are applying.

2. Internal Numbers 1-47: ONLY 1 application letter is required for numbers 1-47. Include on the top right corner of your application letter all the numbers you are applying for. [Example: If you are applying for #1, 5, 14, 25 you would put the numbers at the top right corner of one (1) application letter and submit another one (1) application letter for the Massey Office. You must address the criteria for each scholarship or bursary in your letter or you will not be eligible for that scholarship or bursary.]

When applying for multiple scholarships and bursaries, Internal 1- 47, please be sure to address the criteria for all the scholarships and bursaries applied for in your one application. If your application does not address the criteria for the particular scholarship or bursary you will not be considered for that scholarship or bursary.
