

WWF

Are you passionate about animals? Do you want to be involved in protecting endangered animals from extinction? Join WWF or World Wildlife Fund club! Meetings happen every Monday at lunch at room 180! See you there!

Hoody Day

Hoody day will be Wednesday October 25. Be sure to show your school spirit.

Ping Pong on Friday's

Ping pong club is back! Newbies, experts, everyone in between, come to the mass cafeteria on Friday from 3:15 to 4:30 every week to play some ping pong. All equipment is provided.

Year Books!!

Did you forget to buy your yearbook? You have 6 days to purchase your book by Nov 1st. The price $50, the place Pearson Office don't miss out. Sales stop November 1st don't count on extra books in June.

Royal Columbian Hospital Foundation

Are you interested in supporting your local hospital and helping sick children? NDub's wish youth network club, in partnership with the Royal Columbian Hospital Foundation, organizes community events and fundraises to support children in need. Come check out our booth on club's day. Or , drop in to a club meeting in room 170 on Fridays at lunch.

Hip Hop Club!

Attention Hip Hop Club! This week's guest instructor will be NWSS very own Jason Jin who will be teaching us Popping!! Its not to late to join, so see you all Thursday after school in the Dance Studio. Don't forget your indoor shoes.

Happy Diwali

Diwali is a festival that celebrates the triumph GOOD over EVIL and LIGHT over Darkness. The festival is a symbol of hope a renewed commitment to social justice, friendship and good will.

The Diwali festival has its roots in south Asia. Hundreds of thousands of Canadians celebrate Diwali every year by lighting “Divas”. This year the Diwali festival is Today. Don't forget to wish your friends a happy Diwali Today.

GTP STUDENTS

Attention Ms. McNulty's independent GTP students, you still need to book your GTP interview before Nov 15th. You must complete your interview This semester There are no interviews next semester. Don't delay- Book your interview ASAP. Times are filling fast.

Math Contest

Attention all students of NWSS, if you are interested in registering to the upcoming Canadian intermediate or senior math contest, talk to your math teach or see Mr. Ita in room 272. Cost is $10 and registration ends Friday Oct 27th. Don't wait until its to late.