

WWF

Are you passionate about animals? Do you want to be involved in protecting endangered animals from extinction? Join WWF or World Wildlife Fund club! Meetings happen every Monday at lunch at room 180! See you there!

Ping Pong on Friday's

Ping pong club is back! Newbies, experts, everyone in between, come to the mass cafeteria on Friday from 3:15 to 4:30 every week to play some ping pong. All equipment is provided.

Year Books!!

Yearbook sales stop October 31. Do you have yours?

Royal Columbian Hospital Foundation

Are you interested in supporting your local hospital and helping sick children? NDub's wish youth network club, in partnership with the Royal Columbian Hospital Foundation, organizes community events and fundraises to support children in need. Come check out our booth on club's day. Or , drop in to a club meeting in room 170 on Fridays at lunch.

GTP STUDENTS

Attention Ms. McNulty's independent GTP students, you still need to book your GTP interview before Nov 15th. You must complete your interview This semester There are no interviews next semester. Don't delay- Book your interview ASAP. Times are filling fast.

Math Contest

Attention all students who registered for the sun life open math contest, the contest will take place on Thursday Nov.2 during blocks A+B at the library. The students who are registered are listed on the library doors so check if you aren't sure if you registered.

Honor Society Club

Join the Honor Society Club, where we fundraise for girls, education in Africa! We meet every week on Mondays at lunch in Mr. Wingerak's room 268. Everybody is welcome!!

Science Club

Are you in grades 9 or 10? Are you interested in science and engineering? We need you to represent our school in the Kwantlen Science Challenge! This Year's design challenge is a remote controlled car. To find out more, see Mr. Woo in room 180 or drop by Science Challengers Club on Wednesdays at lunch, also room 180 For grades 11-12, if you signed up for the senior team, please attend science challengers club meeting this Wednesday, room 180.

Interact Club

This Halloween the interact club is hosting a polaroid photo booth. Come to pearon foyer tomorrow! 2 dollars per polaroid. See you there!

Rotary Youth Exchange Program

Are you interested in a unique student adventure/opportunity?
The Rotary youth exchange program is a great opportunity to spend 1 year abroad to: Experience a new culture, attend an overseas high school, and learn a new language. For more information, please see Ms. Vit in counselling. The application Deadline is Nov. 13th .